

SPRING NEWSLETTER 2016

Serving The O.U.R. Center and Safe Shelter of St. Vrain Valley by making quilts from donated fabric to sell to the public. All proceeds are donated to these two charities.

WELCOME TO THE INTERFATH QUILTERS' 30TH ANNUAL SALE

This year's quilt show will feature Dear Jane Quilts created by Interfaith Members and Quilters from up and down the Front Range. Come and marvel at the spectacular creativity in these sampler quilts inspired by the original Jane Stickle quilt, which was made in 1863. You will find the Dear Jane Quilts and their creators in the South East corner of the sale room.

Be sure to stop by the Fireside Room where the First Lutheran Ladies are selling pie and coffee.

How to Join Interfaith Quilters

Interfaith Quilters of Longmont is a not-for-profit organization with few rules and good fellowship. There are no membership fees. We meet almost every Monday (see schedule) from 9:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. at the First Lutheran Church at 3rd and Terry St., Longmont, CO. Come and spend whatever time you have with us. Bring an idea and use our fabric and notions to make a quilt for our sale or join one of the works-in-progress and lend a hand. Just walk in the door, someone will greet you, introduce you around and help you get started. Bring a bag lunch.

Mission Statement

Interfaith Quilters of Longmont CO Inc. is a group of volunteers who come together to produce quilts for sale to support local charities, to share the art and skill of all types of quilting, and to provide an opportunity for quilters of any ability to learn and practice new techniques.

Interfaith Quilters would like to thank all who have made donations to our worthy cause. We also want to thank our families and friends for all of their support. And most of all we want to thank all of the quilt lovers who have purchased our quilts.
